

Contents

1		1
2		2
3		3
4		4
5		5
6		6
7	Notes on Contributors	ix 7
8	List of Abbreviations	xiii 8
9		9
10	Introduction	xv 10
11	Thomas Renard and Sven Biscop	11
12		12
13	PART I: THE GLOBAL ORDER	13
14		14
15	1 From Emerging Power to Superpower: A Long Way to Go?	3 15
16	Tanguy Struye de Swielande	16
17		17
18	2 Insecurity in the Post-Liberal Age: Key Security Challenges of the	18
19	Early Twenty-First Century	21 19
20	Tomas Ries	20
21		21
22	3 A Multipolar World in the Making	41 22
23	Thomas Renard	23
24		24
25	4 Multilateralism in Crisis? Global Governance in the Twenty-First	25
26	Century	61 26
27	Marc Saxer	27
28		28
29	PART II: THE EU IN THE TWENTY-FIRST CENTURY	29
30		30
31	5 Europe's Role in the Twenty-First Century	83 31
32	Janis A. Emmanouilidis	32
33		33
34	6 Developing a Grand Strategy for the EU	105 34
35	Jolyon Howorth	35
36		36
37	7 The EU's Strategic Partnerships with Emerging Powers:	37
38	Institutional, Legal, Economic and Political Perspectives	123 38
39	Antoine Sautenet	39
40		40
41	8 Is the EU a "Better" Global Player? An Analysis of Emerging	41
42	Powers' Perceptions	147 42
43	Lorenzo Fioramonti	43
44		44

1	9	Asymmetrical Multilateralism: The BRICS, the US, Europe and the		1
2		Reform of Global Governance (2005–2011)	165	2
3		Richard Gowan		3
4				4
5	10	Conclusion: From Global Disorder to an Effective Multilateral		5
6		Order: An Agenda for the EU	185	6
7		Thomas Renard and Sven Biscop		7
8				8
9		Index	199	9
10				10
11				11
12				12
13				13
14				14
15				15
16				16
17				17
18				18
19				19
20				20
21				21
22				22
23				23
24				24
25				25
26				26
27				27
28				28
29				29
30				30
31				31
32				32
33				33
34				34
35				35
36				36
37				37
38				38
39				39
40				40
41				41
42				42
43				43
44				44